Dear Harold,

I sent The Shoreham and Turner Books, Inc. separate cover. The Balmac is interesting. The latter - dull, padded, no research, no context, no conclusion. Your friend gets a "more too subtle" put down.

The greater "revelations", the larger the mystery of What else is involved. The press has not probed the larger context of the Biographies of Hunt or The Cubans. The tip of a huge story -----.

Balmac has become another Watergate "research". Has been on track shows changing sabotage re: Hunt search. Yes, Watergate is a rich vein.

Mae is charming, dedicated, honest but a poor researcher.

Any academic study of Nov. 22 will have little market pull. The sensational, trivial stuff becomes a hot property.

I do feel your data, given "Journalistic Leaders" award. The contest is right.

I have full confidence that J.G. will soar another one.

Lenny Grafard - a Dallas assassin! Where do they get this stuff?

The new generation will soon be wondering about Daryl Dick!

Take good care of yourself. Hope the suit is going well.

Sincerely,
